Searching for Truth Together

How can I understand unless someone helps me? Acts 8:31

Can there be any good news at all in all other religions and ideologies, outside of the Gospel of Jesus Christ?

The so-called good news in Islam is that one should surrender to Allah and fight for the destruction of other beliefs. Allah will take his righteous followers to Hell first. The Quran does not make it clear to Muslims as to whether Allah will definitely bring them to Paradise or not. As a result, even the prophet of Islam died in uncertainty.

Likewise, the 'good news' in communism and emerging ideas is that there is no God. The thought of God must be eliminated from life because man is nothing higher than nature's tool, arbitrarily struggling for survival and for an unpredictable future.

The 'good news' in New Age, Paganism and Humanism is also that man himself is God and able to solve all his problems.

All of us have either read, heard or personally experienced how all these religions and ideologies have ignored the true concept of truth and freedom, and rather made them subject to human's feelings and opinion, thus opening the door wide for self-centredness, dictatorship, indifference, chaos and problems in every way. They have enslaved their followers and have no good news to free them. Their news seems good only to those who either don't have the chance to think deep or are not interested in living with a clear mind.

But the Good News in Jesus Christ is meaningful, and so is the evangelization of this Good News. Jesus is fundamentally deeper in everything, but the leaders of other religions and beliefs are not. We learn from His wisdom that if a belief is more profound than other beliefs, then it is in everyone's interest to base their lives on that deeper belief. This is our rational reason for depending on Jesus in every way and live as His followers. His thoughts are the most fundamental thoughts, and his messages and promise are full of assurance. As His followers, when we share His Good News with others, we talk about His deepest thoughts and assurance, and help people to transform His assurance into their daily life, live with it and apply His ethics for the establishment of order, peace and harmony to the extent that they can care for one another unconditionally as the members of their own physical bodies do. We are able to teach this profound order, peace and harmony, because we are characterized in the image of Jesus Christ, this deepest thinker, and therefore enabled to manifest His Good News through our transformed lives so that people can understand that freedom in Jesus is real not fantasy.

What an honour for us at EFD to be the givers of this authentic and freeing Good News from Jesus Christ and touch hearts from diverse religious and ideological background. Thank you so very much for your prayers and financial support, paving the way for us to continue this vital evangelistic ministry entrusted to us by Jesus Christ. We wish to reach out to more people and do not want to miss any evangelistic opportunities while the harvest for our evangelism remains widely available. That's why we desperately need your prayers, words of encouragement and financial support.

Daniel Shayesteh

Introducing Janet Shayesteh

Our New Operations Manager

We are delighted to announce the newest addition to our team at EFD: Janet Shayesteh, who has joined us as the Operations Manager. With her remarkable background in the corporate world and experience as a film industry producer, we have full confidence that she will contribute significantly to propelling EFD to greater achievements. Janet's enthusiasm is palpable as she integrates seamlessly into our team and dives into her responsibilities from day one. Her unwavering commitment to aligning EFD with God's will is truly inspiring, and we eagerly anticipate the exciting possibilities that lie ahead on this shared journey. Let us come together in extending a warm welcome to Janet as she embarks on this new chapter with EFD!

Joshua and his Kingdom Impact Ministry

Zimbabwe and Mozambique

Thank you so much for sowing financially into Joshua's ministry in Zimbabwe and Mozambique. His team has a mission house and a poultry house. Here are couple of photos for your encouragement. He is eagerly waiting to harvest from the poultry business and support his team who are committed in reaching out to nations, including Muslims. Joshua is an ex-Muslim follower of Jesus Christ who loves the Lord dearly. Please pray for his need to furnish the house, as they need to move to the house by the end of this month, July.

Thank you so much for your partnership with his team through the EFD.

The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.

MATTHEW 9:37,38

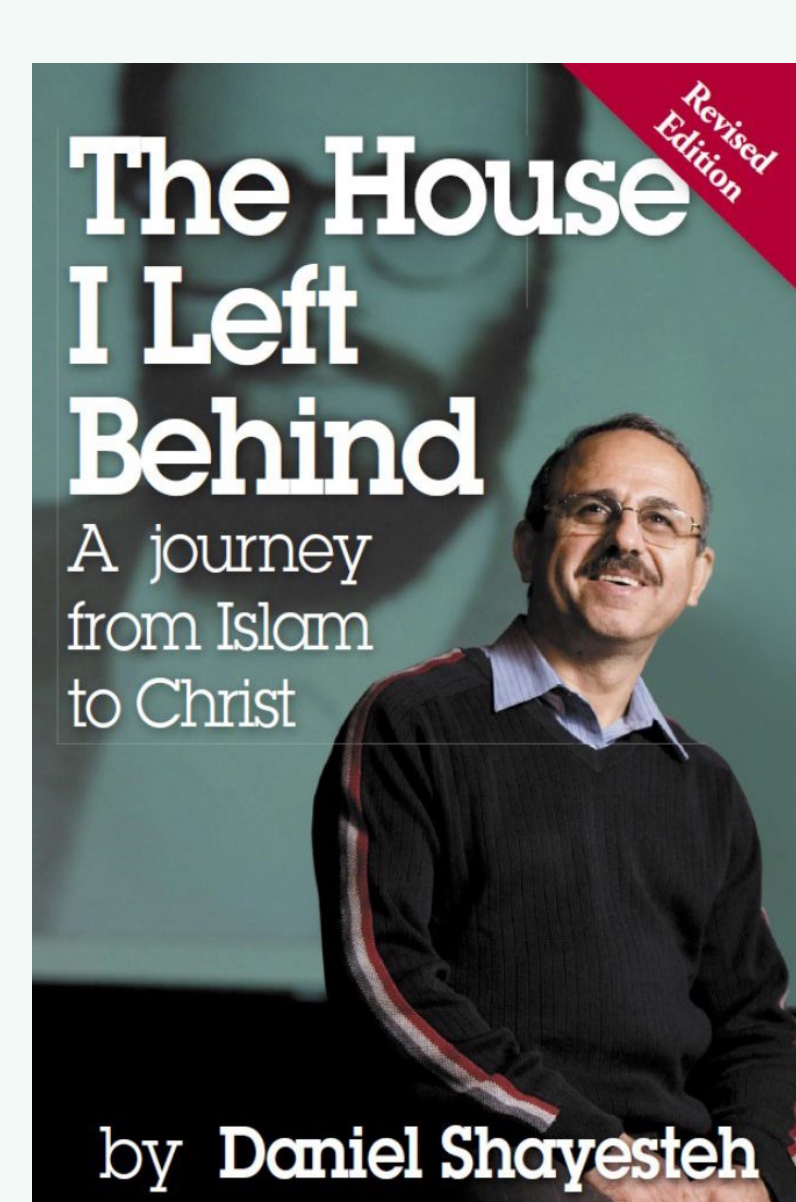

We are thankful for our faithful supporters. If you have recently sent a gift to Exodus From Darkness please do not feel under pressure to give again, but do remember the people we are seeking to reach in your prayers. We are committed to using the funds we receive to reach out to the Muslim world in as many of their languages as possible.

The House I Left Behind

The House I Left Behind (Revised Edition) is a fascinating story and a beautifully written account of Dr. Daniel Shayesteh's life journey from Islam to Christ.

It is extremely touching, captivating and poetic in many areas. The color, he has added in painting a picture of Iran, its cultural richness, its clash with Islamic culture is all a wealth of education and awakening for the world.

His life journey is an ordained life journey that takes him through the cultures, religions and philosophies of the world and eventually establishes him in a house made by the hands of God.
